

32nd Annual City on the Hill Youth Leadership Conference

July 23rd– July 28th 2019

City on the Hill is a nonprofit organization composed of Christian men and women involved in the fields of Christian ministry, education, business, law, medicine, media and public service – organized for the purpose of sponsoring an educational opportunity, which we call the City on the Hill Youth Leadership Conference. The students are selected from throughout the State of California to participate in a fun and informative week of fellowship, study, and training at William Jessup University in Rocklin, CA.

Highlights of the program include workshops on our Christian heritage, the government of California, grassroots community organizing, the influence of the news media, and career guidance. Fun recreation and entertainment will also be provided in the evenings to give students a great opportunity to get to know one another. Participants will conduct a mock legislative session in the California Capitol building and meet with members of the California Legislature. The conference will conclude with a special banquet on Saturday night.

Students and staff will reside in dormitories located on the campus of the William Jessup University in Rocklin, California. Transportation during the conference in Rocklin and Sacramento, accommodations, meals, and program materials are included in the cost of the conference. Travel to and from the conference is not included.

Requirements

- Must be a Christian youth at least 14 years of age and no older than 18 years old (unless otherwise approved by the conference administrator) enrolled in a public or private high school, or currently being home schooled at the high school level;

STUDENT COVENANT

City on the Hill (COTH) Youth Leadership Conference is primarily a leadership training/study camp for committed Christian teens (14 to 18 years of age). We want to make your experience here enjoyable, rewarding and challenging. The staff is committed to helping you grow as a leader and is looking forward to working with you. The development of leadership skills includes taking responsibility for your own life and conduct. Please read the following carefully:

I. The Bible says that Christians should “think on things that are excellent” and “avoid all appearance of evil.”

I will maintain the highest moral standards and maintain a clear personal witness through proper conduct and modest dress.

I will not drink or possess alcoholic beverages while at COTH; I will not possess or use any type of illegal drugs, engage in offensive language, smoking, etc.

II. Leadership involves self-discipline, which means accepting personal responsibility to do those things that are expected of you “as unto the Lord.” Christian leadership involves servant-hood. Jesus said, “Whoever wishes to become great among you shall be your servant.”

I will attend and be prompt and attentive in all classes and activities. I will keep my belongings, room, my public areas, and myself neat and clean. I will be in my dorm by lights out. I will not leave my dorm room before it is allowed. I will not leave the campus without permission.

I will display a servant attitude toward my fellow delegates and staff.

III. COTH is an environment conducive to learning and personal growth, and one in which you can make friends and not be distracted by outside influences.

I will not bring to COTH anything that would detract from this goal; this includes cell phones, iPods, iPads, Kindles, TVs, tablets, laptop computers, printers, etc., and inappropriate literature.

IV. COTH is held at William Jessup University and the California State Capitol. We believe it is important to present a clear testimony for Jesus Christ among our neighbors and in the community.

I will respect the property, privacy, and rights of others, including those of others not associated with COTH. I will not enter the dorm room of a member of the opposite sex. I will not “pair off” with a member(s) of the opposite sex or go off on my own or with another student, without permission from COTH staff at anytime. I will not arrange any meetings with any non-City on the Hill participants.

V. The Bible commands us to submit to authority.

I agree to willingly abide by the rules of City on the Hill, modeling respect for those in authority, regarding my fellow delegates with dignity, and looking for opportunities to serve.

I have read and I agree to all of the above. I understand that I will be asked to leave at my own expense if I do not abide by the City on the Hill regulations.

CONFERENCE FEE SCHEDULE

Registration Fee: $200 (non-refundable) is due at the time of application. This fee is required of every student who applies for the conference. Exception: The registration fee will be refunded to students who are not accepted to the conference.

Conference Tuition: The total cost of City on the Hill is $400, which includes local transportation, meals, accommodations, and program materials.

Late Registration Fee: Applications postmarked after June 24th will be charged an additional $50, for a total conference cost of $450.

Sibling Discount: When a family sends more than one student to the same City on the Hill Conference the same year, the students become eligible for a tuition discount. Each student from the family attending will receive $50 off their tuition upon their acceptance into the program.

Reference Discount: We want to reward those that are telling their friends about the City on the Hill program. When someone mentions in their application they were referred to the conference by you, you will receive $25 off your tuition upon their, and your, acceptance into the program.

Discount Details: Limit: you may receive no more than 2 reference discounts or one sibling and one reference discount (a total of two discounts for the conference).

Payment Balance: The balance of $200 (or $250 for late applications) must be paid by the start of the conference. Students may bring tuition payments with them to registration on site.

Late Applications: Conference space is limited. Availability after June 24th is on a first-come-first-served, limited basis.

Cancellation: Due to contractual obligations with conference facilities, City on the Hill will not refund tuition for students canceling their participation. City on the Hill will make every effort to refund tuition for students unable to attend due to illness or other emergencies but cannot guarantee such refunds. City on the Hill will not refund tuition for students sent home from the conference.

Banquet Reservations: Parents, friends, and other family members are welcome to attend the banquet on Saturday July 27th. Reservations and payment for the banquet must be made by the start of the conference on July 23rd. The cost for the banquet is $28 per person. (Cost for COTH student is covered in tuition). Check in for the banquet will begin at 7pm on Saturday evening and the banquet will begin at 7:30pm. The banquet will be held in the Lecture Hall at William Jessup University.

COTH 2019 Parental Consent Form

We appreciate the fact that you are sending your child to us for this unique conference. As part of a pro-family organization, we believe you have a right to know and consent to what material is presented to your children.

Below is a listing of the topics that could be covered during the conference. These topics will be addressed through the bills that the students will carry as “Legislators,” by our guest speakers, or in discussions on the issues that face politicians today. While we have done our best to anticipate the various issues that will come up, there may be some others that will come up by way of related topics or during group discussions.

All of these topics will be presented and discussed from a Christian perspective. However, for the purposes of teaching debate and logical argument, we may hold a mock debate in which two of our staff members will take an issue and debate it from both sides – liberal and conservative. The purpose is to teach the students how to recognize the other side’s arguments. We are careful to leave the students with a clear understanding of the Christian perspective.

Please read the list and sign at the bottom to indicate that you have been informed of the content, and that you give your child approval to participate in all aspects of the conference.

Dear Prospective City on the Hill Student,

The following information is intended to help you think of ways to raise the funds you need to attend City on the Hill 2019. Most of it is common sense, but hopefully these ideas will save you time in the brainstorming stage.

Raising funds for your tuition should be no trouble if you are willing to put some effort and a little time into the process. Be determined that you are able to do this, and you will find that it's easier than you may have expected to reach your goal.

PRACTICAL SUGGESTIONS:

1. Look at the calendar and figure out how much money you will have to raise each week before you make the final payment. Breaking it down this way makes it more manageable. It will also motivate you to spend a little time each week working toward your goal.
2. Start by writing letters to all of your relatives and friends, even if you are fairly certain they wouldn't contribute. Sometimes these are the very individuals that will surprise you! Many people like to make donations to help someone they know. A form letter works nicely.
3. Contact a staff member at your church, preferably someone who knows you like your Youth Pastor, and tell him/her about your opportunity to attend City on the Hill. Then ask if you can offer your services to people in the church in exchange for a donation to help you attend City on the Hill. Ask if you can place an advertisement in the bulletin, newsletter, on the bulletin board, or wherever such information is posted in your church.
4. Ask if there are any jobs that need to be done at the church facility. For example, some churches may pay for baby sitters, window washers, lawn cutters, extra secretarial work, odd jobs, etc.

5. Your youth group or another group in your church may want to sponsor a fund-raising event to benefit you. Some suggestions are: A dinner, bake sale, concert, car wash, or silent auction. Any of these would make good fund-raising events.

6. Contact your local central committee, tea party group or other civic groups about a possible sponsorship.

Be creative in thinking of ways to get your friends and your church involved in sending you to City on the Hill. These are just a few suggestions to get you started. Finally, be sure to pray as you go. It can be scary asking people for money, but many people actually enjoy giving to individuals like yourself you are bold enough to ask! Ask God to help you and you will be amazed at the results.
